THE FLOOR IS LARVA™

If flying, stinging, and biting really bug you, this is a set you're sure to larva! We recommend staying off the web and really sinking your pincers in.

Fresh from a long trip in the cold reaches of Star Munchkin, the Bug Race now joins classic Munchkin. Bugs really can thrive anywhere!

HOW HIRELINGS BEEHAVE

Hirelings, Sidekicks, Mooks, Minions, Comrades, and Allies are all the same for the purposes of these rules.

Hirelings are found in Door decks in some sets, Treasures in others. (In this set, they're Doors.) You can play a Hireling at any time, even in combat, as long as you have only one Hireling in play at a time. If you draw a face-up Hireling, you may put it in your hand if you cannot (or don't want to) put it in play. You may discard a Hireling at any time.

Hirelings are not Items and may not be traded. A Hireling can sacrifice itself for you. If you lose a fight, then instead of rolling to run away, you may discard one Hireling and anything it is carrying. You automatically escape from all monsters in the fight, even if a monster card says escape is impossible. If someone was helping you in the fight, YOU decide whether that person automatically escapes as well, or must roll to escape.

Hirelings and Cheating

A Cheat! card can be used to give you an extra Hireling, or to let a Hireling carry an item it normally could not (but why not just use the card on yourself?).
